

Clean Air-Cool Planet and the Environmental and Energy Study Institute invite you to a policy discussion on

Climate Change Legislation and Revenue Recycling

Tuesday, September 16, 2008

8:00 -10:00 a.m

Rayburn House Office Building, Room B-369

This session will explore how the revenues generated through climate change legislation can be recycled through the tax code to lower the overall societal cost of reducing greenhouse gas emissions. We will hear from a Member of Congress who has sponsored climate change legislation that provides for revenue recycling; a senior analyst from the Congressional Budget Office who has written extensively about the design of efficient climate change legislation; a leading academician; and experts from two think tanks.

Please join us for a panel discussion featuring:

Representative John Larson (D-CT), Member, House Ways and Means Committee

Terry Dinan, PhD, Senior Advisor for Climate Policy, Congressional Budget Office

Kenneth P. Green, PhD, Resident Scholar, American Enterprise Institute

Robert Repetto, PhD, Senior Fellow, UN Foundation

Robert J. Shapiro, PhD, Chairman of Sonecon, LLC; former Under Secretary of Commerce for Economic Affairs

When: Tuesday, September 16, 2008
8:00-10:00 a.m.
Continental breakfast will be served

Where: Room B-369
Rayburn House Office Building
